Participant Spotlight

Dr. Ronette Shaw

Dr. Ronette Shaw has been a member of P-COC since its inception and continues to support the organizations mission and vision through active participation as the Lead Officer for the Educational team.

She is a Certified Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP), with over 15 years of experience providing care for families in the Bronx and advocating for patient centered healthcare. In her faculty role as a nursing educator, Dr. Shaw conducts research while advocating for equity in the workplace.

As a mother of two small children, she joined P-CoC to support equity and advocacy for children of color. The mission of P-CoC, directed toward unlearning hate and self-hate, has value to what parents should model for our children.
